

Automobile Owners

I am still selling AJAX TIRES and TUBES at the old prices, allowing 5% Cash Discount

REMEMBER

AJAX TIRES are guaranteed in writing for 5000 MILES and if you have a tire for adjustment, bring it to me and I will adjust it and give you a new tire ON THE SPOT.

INTERLOCK RELINERS

Come in and let me show you how you can get large additional mileage from your old tires instead of selling them for junk. The new 1916 INTERLOCK prices are very low.

I can also save you money on anything you need in the line of accessories.

J. M. CADY, Distributor
PHONE 9 RING 1

St. Johnsbury,

Vermont

WELLS RIVER

Power Owners Along Wells River Discussing Building a Big Storage Basin—Locals.

(Mrs. D. G. Farwell, Correspondent.) Prof. Damon of Plymouth, N. H., gave three pleasing violin solos at the vesper service last Sunday.

There was a meeting of the power owners along the Wells River held at Hale's Tavern on Friday, at which a committee was appointed to see about the expense and advisability of creating a storage basin on the river. Twenty-one power owners were present at the meeting.

Jan. 19, Col. Preston Post, No. 64, and Col. Preston Relief Corps, No. 10, held joint installation when the following officers were installed: Post officers installed by Commander W. H. Munsell as follows: A. B. Sterns, commander; A. M. Whitelaw, senior vice-commander; J. H. Symes, junior vice-commander; J. A. George, surgeon; Andrew Aiken, quartermaster; R. G. Brock, adjutant; C. N. Paige, officer of the day. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Wheeler installed the Corps officers: Mrs. Lula B. Hinman, president; Mrs. Cora Myers, senior vice-president; Miss Lottie M. Marshall, junior vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Brock, secretary; Mrs. Minnie Perry, treasurer; Mrs. Flora B. Goss, chaplain; Mrs. Charlotte Stanley, conductor; Mrs. Catherine Munsell, guard; Mrs. Goldie R. Smith, assistant conductor; Mrs. Flora A. Glynn, assistant guard; Mrs. Cora A. Learned, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Lillie S. Murphy, press correspondent; Mrs. Addie E. Carpenter, musician; color bearers, Mrs. Charline George, Mrs. Gertrude Marcy, Miss Agnes Whitelaw and Mrs. Lillian Kimball. At the close of the installation refreshments were served after which a social hour was enjoyed, which included singing and the playing of games at which both young and old enjoyed themselves.

Friday evening over 40 ladies of the Study club met at the vestry to hear Mrs. Annette Dimock, who gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Greater Variety in Common Food."

Mrs. J. F. Hale and Master Jerome Farwell were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bordway of Ryegate were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Farwell of Turners Falls, Mass., spent the last three days of the week with R. E. Farwell and family.

Mrs. Flora Goss spent Monday visiting her uncle, David Brock, at Lyndonville.

Tuesday and Wednesday the Independent Telephone company held its annual business meeting at Hale's Tavern.

Porter Powers visited Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler at White River Junction from Friday till Monday.

Miss Iva Roberts of Rumney is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Learned.

The many friends of Walter Johnson will be pleased to hear of his recent promotion in the American Express company. This necessitates moving with his family to Boston.

Russell Bailey was home from St. Johnsbury over Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Chase of Newbury spent Saturday with Mrs. Dorian.

The Thimble club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. G. Farwell.

Dr. and Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Donald Fraser spent last Wednesday in St. Johnsbury.

Lyndon Institute is closed owing to three cases of scarlet fever. Dumont Bailey is home from the school.

Miss Julia Farwell and Miss Evelyn Hambridge of Tarrytown, N. Y., were in town the last of the week.

Miss Leah Dorian and Mrs. Dorian were in St. Johnsbury Friday.

Judge Baldwin was in Vergennes the latter part of the week.

The Woodville Independents won by a large score from the Lyndonville basketball team last Friday evening.

The little Crabtree children are mourning the loss of their St. Bernard puppy "Prince" who died this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinman of West Derby are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Dean Goehy.

G. E. Hinman was sick the last of the week.

BARNET

Part of a Sled Load of Young People Dumped into a Ditch—Locals.

(Mrs. W. E. Kendall, Correspondent.) Martin Turner kindly opened his house last Friday night to the C. E. society for a leap year entertainment.

There were about 130 from Barnet and McIndoes and a very pleasant evening was spent. George Walker's team carried most of the crowd and when the first load was coming home the side came off of one side of the sled body and the whole load was tumbled into the ditch. No one was seriously hurt. The proceeds for the entertainment were about $15.

Edward Smith and Ned Johnston were in Lyndonville Saturday and attended the horse races. They spent part of the day at Lyndon Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kendall spent Sunday in Monroe, N. H., at G. H. Drew's.

Mrs. Jennie Martin, who has been visiting in the village for a number of weeks, returned to her home in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

The young people of McIndoes will present their play, "The Teaser," at the Town hall Friday evening, Jan. 28. The play will be followed by a dance.

Mrs. Ruth Gillfillan spent Monday in East Ryegate with her son, Henry Gillfillan.

Mrs. A. C. Baldwin from St. Johnsbury and Mrs. Frank Lamb and little grandson from Bradford spent Thursday at Arthur Lamb's.

The illustrated lecture given last Sunday evening was very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Goehy of Littleton are visiting Miss Eula Goehy at Martin Turner's for a few days.

Mrs. John Gilchrist and daughter Helen and Mrs. Walter Kendall spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury and attended the matinee, "Within the Law," at the Colonial.

Word has been received here that there are three cases of scarlet fever at Lyndon Institute and the school is closed for two weeks. Catherine Robie and Dorcas Ayer are at home but Muriel Somers and Mildred Smith are quarantined at the Mathewson house with the other scholars.

Levis Douglass is out again after being shut in two or three weeks by sickness.

Mrs. Don Judkins and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Somers spent Friday in St. Johnsbury.

The mid-week prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evening at Horace Gillfillan's.

EAST BARNET

Annual Spelling School and Speaking Contest To Be Held Feb. 22.

(Mrs. C. W. Tilton, Correspondent.) The annual spelling and speaking contest of the Caledonia south central district will be held at the chapel at East Barnet on Tuesday, Feb. 22 at 10 o'clock. The ladies of the Chapel society will serve a dinner.

Harvey Burbank, Natt and Lois Burbank, who have been ill with the grip the past week are able to be out again.

Miss Della Kay, who has been visiting in Woodville, N. H., for the past two weeks returned to her home here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gibson of St. Johnsbury were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wormwood for the weekend.

Mrs. Lizzie Kendall is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Morse at Littleton, N. H.

Mrs. Eugene Kendall spent Saturday with Mrs. L. E. Gillfillan at Barnet.

Mrs. Carl Collins and son Virgil and Mrs. Cheney of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Herbert Wormwood Thursday.

Mrs. William Richardson and children, who have been visiting Mrs. C. A. Bailey and Mrs. G. A. Richardson for several days returned to their home in Burke last Tuesday.

Miss Marion Quimby was sick last Thursday and Friday and unable to teach school. Miss Belle Gammell substituted for her.

Curtis Dickinson of Lyndonville spent a few days at his home here last week. He is now visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred Weeks, at Woodville, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hatch and three children visited at Danville, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Mason and daughter Margaret of Oxford, N. H., are visiting Mrs. Mason's father, John Morse. Mr. Morse has not been as well for the past week.

Miss Marguerite Esdon of Passumpsic was the guest of Miss Fortia McGill Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Kendall visited her daughter, Mrs. Glen Adams at St. Johnsbury part of last week.

There are a number here sick with the grip. Mrs. Alex Blair, Mrs. L. C. Ames and Mrs. Gertrude Walker have been quite sick. A good many of the school children have been sick.

Neil McDowell came home from his school at Lyndon sick with the grip. One of H. H. Atwood's work horses dropped dead last Monday while he was drawing logs.

Alex Blair filled the creamery ice house last week.

Carl Bailey of Lyndonville spent Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey.

Seaman Amell of Fairlee has been spending several days here with relatives.

Glen Adams of St. Johnsbury visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch Tuesday. Mr. Colby of McIndoes visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bedell Sunday.

G. C. Gammell spent the weekend in Newport. Nelson and Lawrence Fenoff of McIndoes spent the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Amell.

Mrs. Hattie L. Woodard of St. Johnsbury is working for Mrs. Gertrude Walker.

On account of the prevailing distemper the local spelling school was postponed.

John Kendall, Neil McDowell, Mildred Harvey, and Marvourine Cilley are home from their school in Lyndon. The school there is closed on account of scarlet fever.

Miss Julia Fisher spent the weekend at her home in Monroe, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gilbert and son Harold visited in Monroe Sunday.

RYEGATE

(Mrs. C. A. McKirahan, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Symes returned to their home in Marion, Ohio, Friday.

The Ryegate orchestra and male quartet gave an entertainment at McIndoes Friday night.

There will be installation of officers at the Blue Mountain Grange on Wednesday evening.

Allen McKenzie came from the hospital at Hanover last week and is staying at the home of William Thompson.

Mrs. W. T. McLam returned from Manchester Saturday.

Rev. John Lytle of South Ryegate exchanged pulpits with R. L. H. Simpson of Ryegate on Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Nelson was operated upon for appendicitis last week at the Hanover hospital.

Miss Lincoln, who has been seriously ill of blood poisoning for the past week is much better.

Mrs. McCanna returned home from East Ryegate Friday, where she had been caring for Mrs. Richard Baton.

SHEPHERD POMONA GRANGE January Meeting Held In New Hall At Lyndonville.

Shepherd Pomona Grange met with Enterprise Grange of Lyndon for the regular January meeting Wednesday evening. It was the first grange meeting in the beautiful new home of Enterprise Grange. Six candidates were given the obligation of the fifth degree. The officers for the year 1916 were installed by Mrs. Nellie Whitney, assisted by Mr. Whitney as marshal, in a very pleasing manner. A ladies' quartet from Enterprise Grange with Mrs. Beatrice Kelly at the piano furnished music during the installation ceremony. The lecturer presented the following program:

Music, by ladies' trio; reading, Emma Jones; vocal duet, Mildred Grady and Ruby Lebay; reading, Sarah Young; vocal selection with whistling variations, Effie Houghton; W. Arthur Simpson gave a very interesting paper upon "Beef Production in the Eastern States." Supper was then served in the banquet hall to about 80. The next meeting will be with North Danville Grange, Feb. 16.

Jennie Hovey, Lecturer.

Officers of Enterprise Grange. There were 75 members of Enterprise Grange present at the meeting last Friday evening. District deputy, Walter Hall, and Mrs. Hall installed the following officers for the coming year: Master, D. D. Gray; overseer, J. H. Grady; lecturer, Mrs. E. J. Trefren; steward, J. T. Klaus; secretary, Mrs. H. H. Jones; treasurer, Mrs. A. R. Merrill, assistant steward, H. Bailey; Pomona, Bertha Trefren; Ceres, Sarah Young; Flora, Gertrude Nickerson; lady assistant steward, Gertrude McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. H. Arkley and A. T. Hoyt. The lecturer announced that Prof. McLean from the Massachusetts Agricultural college would be present at the first and second degrees and were conferred on ten candidates and two applications for membership were received. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were